

“I Conquered It!”

The Fear & the Mountain

From Prostate Cancer to Mount Everest

Vipul Patel, MD

When you're up against obstacles this big, it's all about skill, precision, and the right equipment. My global search led me to the world-class surgical team at Florida Hospital Global Robotics Institute. Thanks to the skilled and vastly experienced hands of Dr. Vipul Patel and the daVinci® robot, I conquered my prostate cancer and got my life back.

Not only am I cancer-free and fully functional - I also conquered Mt. Everest!
