

MOVERS & INFLUENCERS

Economic Development

Orlando Economic Development Commission, Orlando
Tim Giuliani will head the soon-to-merge Orlando Economic Development Commission (EDC) and the Central Florida Partnership (CFP). This key leadership role will oversee strategic efforts to bring more high-wage jobs to Central Florida while promoting and enhancing the region's dynamic business climate and quality of life.

Are you a Mover or Influencer?
SHARE YOUR NEWS
 Submit your listing today!

Education

Beacon College, Leesburg
Brian Ogle is Animalearn's 2016 Humane Educator of the Year. The animal-rights advocacy group saluted Ogle, who leads the anthrozoology program at Beacon College - the first higher-education institution accredited to award bachelor's degrees primarily to students who learn differently - for using dissection alternatives and linking students to animals through experiences.

FLORIDA'S TOP CANCER HOSPITAL, 6TH IN THE NATION

celebrating
30 YEARS
 OF COURAGE

MOFFITT CANCER CENTER YOUR COURAGE INSPIRES OURS.

Human Resources

Oasis Outsourcing, West Palm Beach
 Oasis Outsourcing, one of the nation's leading Professional Employer Organizations (PEOs), welcomes Dolores Calicchio as Executive Vice President of Human Resources. She will be based in the company's West Palm Beach headquarters. At Oasis, Calicchio will be responsible for Talent Management, Organizational Development and overall HR Operational Excellence.

Subscribe to other free Florida Trend eNewsletters • Subscribe to Florida Trend magazine - Get a FREE gift!

Professional Services

Burr & Forman LLP, Jacksonville
 Burr & Forman LLP announces the addition of three Jacksonville-based Real Estate Partners: John "BJ" Ibach, Timothy May and Chris Strohmenger. These three new Partners continue the firm's expansion in Florida, which includes offices in Fort Lauderdale, Jacksonville, Orlando, and Tampa. The firm has 11 offices total and 300 attorneys across six states.

